Welcome to Life Chakras

Welcome to 'Life Chakras,' a view of the chakras or great centers of life-activity from an astrological perspective, as they relate to your particular birth chart. It is important to understand that although the chakras are often pictured as multi-colored force centers along the spinal column within the body, they are in actuality vast areas of life outside our physical self in which we live and move. For example, although the Jupiter Chakra within the body is sometimes shown as an orange-colored light in the lower spine, it in fact refers to our entire life path, our career, and how we find our way through the thicket of Saturn - all the nature laws and rules of the world. Each chakra is a whole world we get lost in for various lengths of time (or lifetimes), so keep that in mind. More in-depth details about each of the seven chakras and the other planetary force centers are given later in this report.

There has been a lot written about the chakras, but little of it is based on pure astrological and astronomical facts. The technique used here considers the very heart and skeleton of the solar system itself in relations to you, the exact inclinations and disinclinations of each planet to the orbits of the other planets. This research was first published by the author in the early 1970s in the book 'Interface: Planetary Nodes' and was recognized as valid by many of the most advanced technical astrologers of the time, veterans like Charles A. Jayne and Theodor Landscheidt. Here we are using an astronomical analysis of the nodal and skeletal structure of the entire solar system, reducing these points to a technique that can indicate our inclinations and disinclinations (likes and dislikes) in life. There are more technical details at the end of this report, for those who study astrology.

How This Relates to You

'Life Chakras' analysis can answer some very basic, but interesting, questions, such as: As a person, are you predominately up most of the time or the other way around? Do you say 'Yes' to life, or do you have some reservations and, if so, what are they? Are you inclined to work on career and have a strong life path? What areas of life are you naturally disinclined to, and have problems with? In other words, what parts of life do you naturally take to and where do you tend to shy away from or ignore?

There are many levels of astrology and every level has its purpose. I have studied astrology for some fifty years, and the 'Life Chakra' technique has as deep a core as any technique I have worked with, and I have worked with most of them. It is not about personalities and surface texture, but rather about heart essence, and it gets down to the nitty-gritty right off. I must warn that this technique is very frank. It does not mince words, but presents what actually is out there in the solar system itself, plain and unvarnished. When I first worked with it, I was shocked at how candid it is, but I soon found it was very reliable and hit the mark most of the time. Unlike many chakra-oriented techniques, this one is not at all abstract, but offers very down-to-earth comments on your native inclinations and disinclinations, so let's get to it.

Interface Points

16 Points: 7 Positive and 9 Negative

You can see above what percentage of your approach to life has to do with affinities or inclinations and what has to do with disinclinations, where you rub up against stuff. Keep in mind; these percentages say nothing about how many of these combinations you actually have. We covered that above.

What these percentages are about are, regardless of whether you have many or few, how positive or negative are they and, correspondingly, are you. Do you have more affinities in life or more areas where you are not inclined? That is the question we are looking at here.

Your Life is Very Involved

You are very involved (and more than a little opinionated), for there are a great many inclinations and disinclinations in your natal chart, and some are even working at cross purposes to one another. Tendencies, antipathies, partialities, indifferences, predispositions - all of these take up much of your attention and time. Your mind never stops and you probably are occupied with your own likes and dislikes more than you are even aware of or would care to admit.

With all of this constant involvement, your mind may have trouble keeping clear or steady. It definitely won't always be easy sailing in your case, but at least it won't be boring. Given the least opportunity, you will no doubt tend to weigh in on this, that, and any other topic you are inclined or disinclined to. In other words, you are way into what you do and don't like. Aside from this sheer amount of likes and dislikes, what perhaps is more important is the balance between the inclinations you have and what it is you are disinclined toward.

Are You a Yea or Naysayer?

44% Yea and 56% Nay

At any given time the planets moving through their orbits are naturally inclined to some planets, while disinclined to others. Their orbital planes dictate this. Much like when we reach a crossroad in a vehicle, we can look to the right or left down an avenue we are not traveling, so when a planet crosses the plane of another planet, they too share a common inclination for that time. Similarly, when a planet moves mostly out of plane with another planet, they are disinclined -disinclinations.

The sum total of all the inclinations add up to a positive approach (we are inclined or have affinities), while the total of our disinclinations point to just the reverse - what we are not inclined to do, what we don't like. Do we have more affinities or non-affinities, and if we do what are they? Overall, do we tend to say 'Yes' to life or 'No.'

There are several things to examine here, starting with: have you any inclinations or disinclinations in your chart at all? Are there more affinities or inclinations than disinclinations and, if so, are they many, few, or just about average and what does that mean for you? Let's take a look.

You Are Somewhat Disapproving

Your disinclinations narrowly win over your inclinations, but they are almost equal. By the slimmest of margins you can be said to be a little more discriminating or particular (negative or critical) with certain areas of life than with others. You are a little bit of a "naysayer," if the truth be known. Actually you have it almost equal and going both ways, inclinations as well as affinities.

Tipping the scale toward being adverse to certain things does not make you a 'negative person,' although some may find you not quite as 'up' as they might prefer. What to you is just how you naturally feel and see life can appear to others as being on a 'downer,' so you may want to take note and be somewhat gentle with your opinions.

Actually, it will be important to check out what these inclinations and disinclinations actually are which we will do below.

Inclinations & Disinclinations

Your Inclinations and Disinclinations

Now you have a general idea of many inclinations and disinclinations make up your attitude, and whether that attitude is mostly positive or mostly negative, inclined or disinclined. Now let's look at each of your inclinations and disinclinations, one by one. These are listed in order of importance, which means that those near the top are much more precise and important for you to consider than those farther down the list. Check them out.

Self-Effacing Urge

Your own feelings and drive may at times work against your own best interests, and create future obstacles that will have to be negotiated down the line. You don't always feel your self.

(Mars Disinclined to Sun's Equator)

Careful and Disciplined Mind

When it comes to thoughts and thinking them, you are naturally disciplined and very organized. Perhaps it could be said that you run too much to the serious side, but no one can question your sincerity and dedication.

(Saturn Inclined to Mercury)

Mundane Mind

Not overly given to creative fantasy or mental flights of the imagination, you prefer to mentally work things through in a more practical manner. You probably don't think out-of-the-box a whole lot.

(Neptune Disinclined to Mercury)

Can't Think Out-of-the-Box

Your mind goes against the unconventional and the eccentric and feels at home fitting in and conforming. No need for wild and crazy ideas, when the tried and the true are just that for a very good reason - they work best.

(Uranus Disinclined to Mercury)

Love of Authority and Discipline

Let's face it, you naturally love hard work and discipline. In fact you find that rules and regulations make it easier for you to accomplish and apply yourself. Your reverence for authority is almost a natural wonder.

(Saturn Inclined to Venus)

Difficulty Finding Values

You may lack a basic appreciation of some of the finer things in life or they could just not interest you, like the fine arts, the theater, beauty, etc. - everything refined. Or you may not have a talent for measuring or appraising anything of value.

(Venus Disinclined to Earth)

Career Separate from You

Your career, how you make a life, and the general path in life you are on may not be something you identify with all that much. In other words, you are not what you do - you are not your career.

(Jupiter Disinclined to Earth)

Strong Career Drive

Your career drive and push may be unusually strong, and just about everything you attempt to do probably turns into something of an opportunity. You are career centered.

(Jupiter Inclined to Mars)

Career of Independence

"You may choose an unusual career or at least bring a flair for the unusual and unconventional to whatever you do for a living. You definitely chose the road less traveled."

(Uranus Inclined to Jupiter)

Lack of Career Discipline

In your career and way through life, you may tend to buck authority and be less disciplined than the average, preferring to find ways around the rules rather than follow them.

(Saturn Disinclined to Jupiter)

Inventive Discipline/Original Laws

Your natural sense of discipline and hard work is enhanced by a strong streak of inventiveness and sheer insight. You can see how to use things, whatever is a fact, to your best advantage, often coming up with new uses for old objects.

(Uranus Inclined to Saturn)

Rebel Against Order

You are more than just a little unruly or unconventional. Even that is an understatement. You are way out of the box when it comes to your sense of independence, originality, and refusal to follow the rules, laws, and regulations of life.

(Saturn Disinclined to Uranus)

Don't Like the Unconventional

When it comes to whatever is unconventional, out of the ordinary, or just plain different, you don't like it so much. Your idea of freedom and independence is much more conservative, if that makes any sense. You like it straight.

(Venus Disinclined to Uranus)

Constantly Independent

A natural rebel is for you the norm, and those who come to know you will agree: on you the eccentric looks pretty normal. This is no act you are putting on, but like a suit of clothes tailor-made, everything extraordinary and cutting-edge is where you are most yourself.

(Uranus Inclined to I-Plane)

Always Motivated

Some will find your sense of adventure and the way you come on somewhat larger than life, and you can appear as an intimidating figure with your innate sense of 'daring-do.'

(Mars Inclined to I-Plane)

Instability

You can't seem to help going against authority or whatever the natural order of things are, and this kind of attitude will not get you far, without some modification.

(Saturn Disinclined to I-Plane)

Personal Chakra Order

So far we have looked at the Interface points for your chart, planet by planet, starting with the most important and working down the tree. It remains for us now to look at the overall chakra tree itself to see which of the chakras receives the most activity by planetary and activation, since this points to areas of your life where you can expect to be most involved.

The seven chakras are usually displayed along a diagram of the human spine, starting from the Saturn or Muladhara Chakra and moving up the spinal column to the Crown Chakra at the top of the head. Seven are usually listed, but here we will be adding the outer planets plus the Equator of the Sun and the Invariable Plane of the solar system, although they are not traditional centers of energy. And we will list the chakras not in their traditional sequence, but with the most active for you listed first and moving downward from there.

Saturn: Responsibility Chakra - 6 Contacts

Saturn or Responsibility (Muladhara Chakra)

Saturn presents the obstacle course through which we have to go through if we want to get past the present situation we find ourselves in. An inclination toward Saturn brings organization and definition (for good or ill), while a disinclination brings obstacles and barriers to progress.

Saturn is about the laws and limitations of this material world we all live in. Saturn indicates where we are bound to learn the narrowness that makes our way felt -- the walls that make homes possible. Saturn, the great divider, holds us together as much as it keeps us apart. In many ways, Saturn is said to be the great teacher, the planet that keeps us from getting carried away too far in one direction or another. It will always seek to limit and determine any thought, word or action. Saturn or Satan has been called the prince of the material world. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Disciplined with Ideas
- Disciplined Love or Appraisal
- Trouble Solving Problems
- Rebel Against Order
- Instability
- Organized Independence

Uranus or Insight Center - 6 Contacts

Uranus (Insight and Independence)

The planet Uranus, when inclined to another planet, brings a way out or through, often a break-through or a break-out of whatever binds us. When disinclined, Uranus can't figure any way out or beyond, as in no idea or insights at all.

Uranus is how each of us gets some independence from the routine of our everyday existence, how we break out, and are able to see things differently. It rules all manner of discovery, invention, and insight, in particular: finding new uses for old things. Uranus marches to the beat of a different drummer, and therefore rules all that is unusual, eccentric, and off the beaten paths. It goes against convention and the status quo, and favors difference and variety, whatever is unconventional. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Independent Career
- Organized Independence
- Constantly Independent
- Not Verbally Inventive
- Rebel Against Order
- Don't Like the Unconventional

Jupiter: Career Chakra - 4 Contacts

Jupiter or Career (Svadhithana Chakra)

Jupiter marks out our Life Path, our career, literally the way we go through life. Jupiter inclined to another planet always shows a way through or onward, the path through the obstacles, and a problem solved, while disinclinations point to dead ends and problems not-solved.

Jupiter, named 'Guru' in Sanskrit, is just that: our guru or guide through the thickets of life, our particular life path or vocation - career. Jupiter is how we succeed, the planet of success, and success here means simple succession or continuing, how we will be able to continue. Jupiter is said to be the key to Saturn, how each of us will find our way through the limitations and laws life lays on us. It is our personal dharma path, how we will solve the problems and obstacles that life brings. Jupiter is the way we go through life, our way to go. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Career of Action
- Career Separate from Self-Interest
- Independent Career
- Trouble Solving Problems

Mercury: Mental Chakra - 3 Contacts

Mercury or Mind (Ajna Chakra)

Mercury has to do with our mind and how we use it, as in thinking, writing, speaking, and communication in general of all sorts. Any planet at an Interface point to Mercury (inclined or disinclined) will be involving mental processes of one form or another. Here is the traditional description of Mercury.

Mercury is pure awareness, called 'Buddha' (Awareness) in Sanskrit, the light in our eyes, the ever-changing consciousness within us that moves from idea to idea. Therefore Mercury represents the Mind and all ideas, the thoughts we have, and mental processes, in general. Mercury rules not only our thoughts, but also how they travel, meaning all manner of communications, whether by phone, letter, email, spoken conversations - what have you? And finally, Mercury rules the wires, waves, cables, and connections that communications travel through to reach us. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Disciplined with Ideas
- Spiritual Ideas of No Interest
- Not Verbally Inventive

Venus: Love/Values Chakra - 3 Contacts

Venus or Love (Visuddha Chakra)

Venus is the first planet inside of Earth toward the Sun center, so it refers to something inner and inside us, like traditionally love and compassion, which translates pragmatically also to acquisition, appraisal, evaluation, and to all the finer things in life that we can measure, like beauty of all kinds.

Venus rules how we love or appreciate how we value things in our life, and therefore our values and sense of values. On the high end, Venus is compassion, the deepest form of appreciation, and on a more mundane level it rules how we appraise, access, and value things around us: a good dinner, a new car, and so on. And how we appreciate is also how we enjoy life, so Venus marks what we enjoy, and just how we like to have a good time. Venus rules our values and sense of appreciation. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- You Have Trouble Liking Yourself
- Don't Like the Unconventional
- Disciplined Love or Appraisal

Mars: Ambition Chakra - 3 Contacts

Mars or Ambition (Manipura Chakra)

Mars is the first planet outside Earth's orbit, so it has to do with reaching out and externalization, as in aggression in action. Planets inclined to Mars get an extra push or urge-to connected to them, while Mars disinclined either lacks energy or rubs up against something too hard.

Mars represents ambition, our inner motivation and drive, what urges us on, and keeps us moving forward. Mars is the all about meaning, what things mean, what moves us, and emotional energy and push, in general. Mars carries us beyond ourselves and out into the world, driving us up against things. Mars is also outward aggression and moves us into competition and combat. Ultimately, Mars energy is our search for meaning in our lives, and a deep urge for peace and unity. Mars is sexual energy that ends in marriage, union, and yoga. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Always Motivated
- Self-Effacing Urge
- Career of Action

Stability: Invariable Plane - 3 Contacts

Invariable Plane (Stability Center)

The Invariable Plane of our solar system, like its name suggests, is a vast unvarying plane that passes through the center of gravity of the solar system and is independent of the mutual perturbations of the planets. It is called 'invariable' because it remains unaltered, regardless of any and all motions within the planetary system. It is a plane through the center of mass, perpendicular to the orbital angular-momentum factor. This factor is made up of the angular momentum arising from planetary orbital revolutions and from axial rotations.

As one planet in our system decreases its eccentricity and inclination (over very long time periods), one or more other orbits must at the same time be increasing their eccentricities and inclinations, whereby the total amount of eccentricity and inclination remains constant. Jupiter and Saturn largely determine the invariable plane, since they are the largest and heaviest of the planets. Needless to say, this is a very consistent (invariable) factor and points to extreme stability. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Constantly Independent
- Always Motivated
- Instability

Earth: Heart Chakra - 2 Contacts

Earth or Heart Center (Anahata Chakra)

Earth, the planet you live on, is all about you, yourself, and all that goes along with that concept. An inclination or disinclination involving Earth is far more important (again to 'you') than if it was to involve any two other planets. So, any planets that are inclined or disinclined to Earth should be carefully considered.

The Earth/Sun represents your self or identity, what you look forward to or hope to become in the future, and that which you respect or use as a reference point. In other words, the Sun represents all the changes that still are ahead for you, all of yourself that you have not yet experienced. The Sun, in one's life, is therefore at first usually someone you look up to and respect, often a mentor, teacher, older person - authorities or those more experienced in life - the essence of your future. And as time passes, we move into the Sun and become the Sun ourselves. It burns brightly before us, showing us ourselves as we can or will be, but also too hot for us to endure just at the moment. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- You Have Trouble Liking Yourself
- Career Separate from Self-Interest

Solar Equator: Sun Center - 1 Contact

Solar Equator (Sahasrara or Crown Chakra)

In daily-astrology columns in the newspapers we refer to our 'Sun Sign', which is really not about the sun as much as it is about the Earth's relation to the sun, and thus it tells us something about ourselves, who we are, rather than about the Sun itself. When we speak of the Equator of the Sun, we are referring to the Sun itself, the source of all light, warmth, life, and so on. Here the Sun is our deepest self or source, and is always referred to the Crown Chakra, the very highest chakra.

The Equator of the Sun (solar equator) like the Earth's equator, is a fundamental reference plane to which we could refer all planetary motion. The inclination (angle) of the solar equator to the ecliptic (zodiac) is  $7^{\circ}15'$  and the longitude of the ascending node to the ecliptic of 1950 is  $15^{\circ}04'$  of the tropical sign Gemini. Just as the plane of the Moon determines key events like the eclipses, so the equator of the sun is an important reference point in the solar system. Where that equatorial plane intersects with the plane of the earth's and other planets orbits is something worth noting and considering. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here,

- Self-Effacing Urge

Neptune: Imagination Center - 1 Contact

Neptune (Imagination and Spirituality)

Neptune is all about making things whole or one, unity, and an inclination of a planet to Neptune suggests imagination, spiritual sense, and all that is other-worldly in music, art, film, poetry, and what-have-you? A planet disinclined to Neptune points to a lack of imagination and a spiritual desert.

Neptune is the planet of solution, endlessly solving all differences, and finding the unity in life, rather than what separates. It is said to be the higher octave of Venus, and represents compassion and deep acceptance - universal love and union. 'The dewdrop slips into the shining sea.' Neptune always sees the whole picture, the ideal as it should be and could be, rather than how it may be at the present. It is the planet of the imagination and inspiration, and thus relates to film, music, and the arts - wherever the mind can soar. It also rules all things spiritual, whether formal religion or personal dreams and beliefs - the mystic. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

- Spiritual Ideas of No Interest

Pluto: Control Center - No Contacts

Pluto (Control and Power)

Pluto is about power and transformation, power to force and the force of transforming ourselves and our lives. Pluto inclined to another planet may bring control by force and certainly power of one sort or another (including the abuse of it), while Pluto disinclined suggests the lack of force, not solving things with power or change.

Pluto somehow manages to skirt past our defenses and touch us deeply, to the very quick, and always wherever we are most sensitive. It can humble us in an instant, and bring on the hour's heartbreak, no matter how we may try to steel ourselves. For this reason, Pluto has been called the planet of transformation and real inner change, our inner alchemist. It is through Pluto moments that we identify with the greater life process itself, and in that experience, we cannot but change, and die to die whatever we have been thinking up to that moment, and are forced to take another look at things. Pluto can be harsh to the extreme, and is also associated with all kinds of force, and the more brutal kinds of truth. Your personal contacts with this chakra (if any) are listed here.

About Interface Points

About the Interface Points

I have been studying and working in astrology for some fifty years now and I was still surprised at the accuracy and depth of the Life Chakras report. Perhaps it is because this report is based on the orientation of the entire solar system to itself, the precise relation of each planetary orbit to the others, their orbital attitude one to another. Like a jewel set in space, all of these angles and attitudes point out how we down on Earth get along or don't get along with our selves and with others. 'Life Chakras' is literally a perfect reflection of the gem-like nature of the solar system. When I began reading the reports of my family I was shocked at how candid they were. My first reaction was that I should not let anyone read these, but this gave way to an appreciation for the information they reveal about what we care and don't care for, our inner attitudes - likes and dislikes.

The diagram below (to scale) shows Mars and Jupiter (each in their orbit) at maximum disinclination to one another. In other words, they are as far from inclination (being in the same plane) as possible. The inclination points are where the two planes (blue and red) intersect, shown by the symbols for ascending and descending nodes. The Earth is also shown. Now imagine all nine planets, each with a different attitude or inclination. This is what we are mapping and interpreting here.

Getting the Most From This Report

I wrote a whole book on this subject back in the early 1970s, now republished in paperback on Amazon.com, called 'Interface: Planetary Nodes.' Let me see if I can give you an idea of why the concept is interesting and perhaps explain why it is so powerful.

Each planet in our solar system orbits the Sun in what is called its orbital plane, but these planes are at different inclinations to one another. They don't share a common plane. In other words, the planetary orbital planes are not naturally inclined one to another, but they do intersect, and every so often a planet will reach an intersection with another planet and simultaneously be in its own plane as well as in the plane of the other planet. It is much like when driving we reach an intersection and can look right or left down a street other than we are actually traveling on.

For example, Mercury may reach the intersection of its orbital plane with that of the planet Mars, and at that time it is in or inclined to the Martian plane. Mercury is the activator and Mars is the plane activated. Both planets are in the same plane, although Mercury is influencing Mars by moving into its plane. Of course, this is all based on the orbits of the planets around the sun-center. To show how interesting this can get, consider the chart of Howard Hughes, who was one of the world's richest men. Hughes had Jupiter in the plane of Venus in his natal chart and of course Venus-Jupiter combinations spell money in traditional astrological interpretation. There is more. Hughes also had Venus (simultaneously) to the plane of Jupiter. Each planet was at the Interface point of the other. That particular combination was one of the signs that first alerted me to the power of the Interface technique. Just think about it, the world's richest man and Venus and Jupiter in reciprocal relation to one another.

The Interface points are the reduction of the complete planetary structure of our solar system to a single set of points (inclinations and their square or non-inclined points) that perfectly represents or reflect that structure, literally a cosmic diamond or gem. These points shine not only in the solar system, but within our own person and life. Lest we forget, the Sun is the source of all light, warmth, and life for us and it shines not only on us from above but, also from within us at the heart or soul level. There is no systematic set of points I am aware of as crucial or fundamental as these orbital elements.

I hope you enjoy your Life Chakra report and find this unique perspective as interesting as I do.
